

BOCA RATON

Party to raise awareness for heart disease in women

A Valentine's Day Party benefiting the American Heart Association will be held at 7 p.m. Wednesday at the Monument Piazza at Royal Palm Place, 101 Plaza Real South.

The night will include Latin music by Nicholas Marks & Ari, raffle prizes, and special gifts for anyone wearing red. The American Heart Association's "Go Red for Women" campaign raises awareness for heart disease in women.

The event is free and open to the public. Call 561-929-0172.

BOCA RATON

Application deadline extended for teen showcase

Palm Beach and Broward County teens looking to showcase their singing and dancing prowess just got an assist from the Boca Raton Rotary Club.

The application deadline for the fifth annual Future Stars Local Talent Competition has been extended to Friday.

Young crooners and dancers ages 11 to 17 will vie for cash and awards on May 4 in Boca Raton High School auditorium. Proceeds will benefit Rotary Club initiatives.

There are group and individual categories, and accepted applicants will audition at a date to be determined.

Visit www.rotaryfuturestars.com for information.

BOYNTON BEACH

Redevelopment agency to consider site cleanup

The city's Community Redevelopment Agency will discuss whether to designate the CRA district a brownfield due to possible environmental contamination at certain sites during its regular meeting at 6:30 p.m. today. Board members will meet at City Hall's council chambers at 100 E. Boynton Beach Blvd.

Having a brownfield designation could make property owners within the district eligible for public assistance in cleaning up their sites.

The board also will discuss an

A work in progress

ALMOST DONE: Frank Scalise, 16, and Christina Palma, 15, of Forest Hill High School, put the final touches on their team's mouse trap at the Rube Goldberg competition for local high school students in Boca Raton. The national challenge is to build a machine that will assemble a hamburger consisting of no less than one precooked meat patty, two vegetables and two condiments sandwiched between two bun halves. Photo/Gina Fontana